TIME: 06:46 Hrs.
CASE NUMBER: 16-21532

On the above time and date, Officers were detailed to a call of a burglary at ALDIS GROCERY STORE, located at 110 Middle St., in Bristol, Ct. Upon arrival the Officers were met by the manager who stated that at the time the store was closed; however, there were employees working inside the building. An employee heard a door alarm activated and upon investigation he found a rear door open and a Black male crouched down inside the building. The perpetrator fled the building on foot when he was discovered by the employee. The employee gave a physical description of the perpetrator and supplied responding Officers with a video tape that captured the burglary incident.

Responding Officers searched the area for the suspect that was believed to be on foot. At 08:00, the Officers found a male matching the description of the suspect walking in the parking lot of ALDIS. The Officers detained the individual and learned that he was the same male captured on the video in the burglary.

The suspect gave Officers a false name and was subsequently identified through fingerprint records. He was identified as one, DERRELL TOMBERLIN, age 35, of No certain address. Tomberlin was arrested and charged with Burglary 2nd Degree, and Interfering with A Police Officer.
